NOTES:

- If you have areas of specific interest or places you really want to see let us know and we will do our best to include these.
- Whilst we will do our best to confirm all meetings and visits things change frequently in Timor-Leste and people have many competing demands on their time. Be assured we guarantee you will meet many inspirational women and visit a variety of great programs, we always have a plan B & C ready to put in place.
- Our hosts are able to accommodate special dietary requirements, just let us know. We eat well on tour, purchasing fresh local produce along the way.
- Optional gentle morning yoga practice is available for those interested, just let us know.
- Travelling in Timor-Leste can be physically challenging due to the heat and time spent on bumpy roads. In addition the terrain is rough for walking. Please let us know your level of fitness so we can take this into account when planning our activities.
- Travel times in itinerary refer to number of hours actually spent in the car, we stop frequently along the way.
- Please limit luggage to one medium piece and small day pack. Soft luggage is much easier to pack into the vehicles.
- Please see our general tour information document and packing list for more information.
